Why worry about your pets during business or vacation trips?
Why pay for pet sitting when you can have a friend pet sit for you?
Why spend your hard earned money on a pet sitting service?

If you are like me I am sure you would prefer to have friends who know your pets come over and pet sit or take your pets to their homes when you are away. Then take a look at our free " Pet Sitting Exchange " service. It is a pet community project aimed at building a network of people providing free pet sitting services for each other.

Our Pet Sitting Exchange database simply connects everyone who needs pet sitting services and are also willing to provide those services in exchange Its Easy - Free - Private and Secure ...And it REALLY works!

Search by area and find new friends with your interests.
Build a network of friends who can help you when you need them.

Our goal is to help people find pet sitters for their pets even in areas where there are no commercial services available.

The more people who join, the more people we all have available to help us.
The easier it gets.
